NICKY ARNSTEIN GIVES UP "MASTER MIND" NOW IN TOOMBS.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK CITY, May 20.— Peter Arnstein, sought by the police as one of four criminals as the alleged head of a band of robbers who made a connection with both the Nazi and Japanese governments, has been found to have hidden from the police by all means in funds and other securities from 1930 to 1935, when he was the man behind of Frank's Books, an agency, whom he married in 1935. He disappeared from New York, where he maintained two lavish apartments besides a country home at Hightwood, L. I., on February 20 last, since which he has been reported in various parts of the country on the run, according to the authorities.

Arnstein is the son of a New York banker, now 45 years old. The police say he is well known in France and England as in the United States. Criminal offerings a reward for his arrest said to be carried high class hotels and gambling places. He is a flabby dresser. Once, when engaged in court, he appeared in a blue suit with a pink dot emblem and a pink silk shirt.

Was Arrested Eight Years Ago.

Eight years ago Arnstein was arrested in London and extradited to New York. Incriminating William Eustace of Boston, Massachusetts, was out of $15,000 by means of worthless stock, sentenced to two years in Newgate prison. Arnstein served less than a year. Sixty other members of the band were later arrested in New Francisco, Tokyo and Baltimore.

Sixty-four after Arnstein's disappearance last February, a federal judge in New York issued an order requiring New York banks and depositaries in the metropolitan area to disgorge of any money, stocks, bonds or other securities Arnstein might have deposited in them. He was known to have six safe deposit boxes in various public vaults. According to the police, Arnstein, together with his associates, obtained the stored bonds and other securities from the passengers and ramblers and took them in various cities where they were put up as collateral for loans. The bonds or notes who committed the thefts received less than one-quarter of their value, and, in some instances, nothing at all. More than $100,000 was said to have been "buried" in Canadian banks in this way. Arnstein is said to have been traced to Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and Cleveland.

All Big Cities Raided.

Assistant District Attorney Donald of New York, who has been prominent in the investigation of the Arnstein case, said that it first resulted from October, 1936, when he had heard more than 100 bond certificates buried from $10,000 to $100,000, and that most of them were office notes that is, bonds by employees of banks and brokerage houses. He said the "system" had connections in every large city in the United States. Bonds stolen in Cleveland, Chicago or San Francisco, he declared, were forwarded to banks in New York or other cities, who paid them off as collateral for loans.

Holiday strings are being pulled, declared Bernard J. McGinn, managing director of the state department of

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20. That is the reason for the plan of Agnes Peleg, in which she outlined the aims of the new revolution, was the declaration made by General Palma Gonzales, in an exclusive interview given to the Associated Press which was the first granted by him to any foreign correspondent.

General Gonzales and I are holding a daily conference with a view to forming a moral revolution against Germany to a successful finish, without interrupting constitutional order, General Gonzales said.

The Liberal Constitutionalists can not repudiate the constitution which is the basis for legal government, since particularly we must re-examine its legality. With the legislature naming the president, as I do, the candidate for the presidential election can hold successfully.

The successful constitutionalists can assume the presidency and of course the recognition of other nations.

Regarding my attitude toward the United States and other foreign countries, it has been fully set forth in my previous utterances, especially when I openly declared for the allied powers when the German offensive was at its height in 1917. All this, although Gonzales is in an out-of-the-way place, with scarcely a chance of being included on the route, owing to the difficulty of approach for air craft, we should be transcontinental aero mail service be established.

The same thing was worked in a number of places, it is stated. Mackay was not in the United States Air Service nor under orders from the War Department. He had, however, been connected with a California company which proposed a transcontinental aero mail service, and when his connection with that was severed he went on with his own scheme.

He was taken from Dawson to Eaton for a hearing before a commissioner and placed under $1000 bail. Frank Eaton was brought to Albuquerque, where he is held in the city jail pending action by a grand jury. The possibility for violation of the Federal statute is $1000 or imprisonment for three years, or both.

12 PEOPLE ARE KILLED IN W. VA. RIOTS

— (By Associated Press)

MATTHEWS, W. Va., May 20. With hundreds of miners shouting threats and demands of wage increases and reinstatement of men discharged, a strike developed in this city following the killing of twelve persons last night in a bitter battle between private detectives and miners.

The shooting, in which Robert Feltz, detective chief, was killed and Matthews police, responded to the conflicts, from the action of the detectives who evicted a number of miners from the Stone Mountain Coal Company's mines yesterday.

The State Mountain Company's miners were shown what it became known an effort was being made to minimize them.

A shot said by authorities to have been fired from a coat pocket by Albert Feltz, a detective, and which ended the life of Steve Cobb, a terrorist of Matewan, started the battle.

The Indians after Feltz died, according to the authorities, he was killed by "Old" Ballifield, chief of police of Matewan.

The shooting then became general.
